

HAXPES 2026 Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

The HAXPES 2026 conference will bring together scientists from academia, national laboratories, and industry to discuss the latest developments in instrumentation, methodology, theory, and emerging applications, centred around the following topical areas:

- Instrumentation and Method Development
- Theory and Modelling
- Application on Energy Materials and Catalysis
- Application on Electronic Structure and Emergent Phenomena
- Atomic and Molecular

HAXPES 2026 is your opportunity to showcase your products and services and enhance your visibility in the scientific community.

HAXPES 2026 will take place at Worcester College, in the city of Oxford (UK). The conference will be hosted in the Sultan Nazrin Shah Centre, a world-class venue for conferences and events which overlooks the College gardens, sports fields and cricket pavilion.
